

“The Accountability of the European Central Bank: New Frontiers, New Challenges”

Diane Fromage (University of Salzburg)
Menelaos Markakis (Erasmus University Rotterdam)

Monday 28 November 2022 afternoon, 13:00-17:00, Theil C1-5

Welcome address by Harriët Schelhaas (Dean & Professor of Private Law, Erasmus School of Law) and Fabian Amttenbrink (Vice-Dean & Professor of European Union Law, Erasmus School of Law) (13:00-13:30)

Panel 1: Climate change & central banks and financial supervisors (13:30-15:00)

Chair: Fabian Amttenbrink (Professor of European Union Law, Erasmus School of Law)

- Rosa María Lastra (Sir John Lubbock Chair in Banking Law, Queen Mary University of London), “Accountability of greening the ECB”
- René Smits (Professor Emeritus of Law, University of Amsterdam), “Elaborating a climate change-friendly legal perspective for the ECB”
- David Brinkman (Senior Legal Counsel, European Central Bank), “Climate-change and banking supervision: the ECB’s duty to act?”

Discussant: Nathan de Arriba-Sellier (Research Director at Yale Initiative on Sustainable Finance, Yale University) (online)

Coffee break (15:00-15:30)

Panel 2: Current monetary policy instruments (15:30-17:00)

Chair: Menelaos Markakis (Assistant Professor, Erasmus School of Law)

- Alicia Hinarejos (Full Professor of Law, McGill University), “Evolving monetary policy instruments and the accountability of the ECB” (online)
- Klaus Tuori (Research Fellow, University of Luxembourg), “This time it is for real – the ECB’s accountability amidst rampant inflation”
- David Baez (Senior Legal Counsel, European Central Bank), “Accounting for the proceeds-policy in Eurosystem’s monetary policy”

Discussant: Drazen Rakic (European Parliament)

Tuesday 29 November 2022 morning, 09:30-13:00, Mandeville T3-35

Coffee served from 09:00 onwards

Panel 3: Digitalisation in the Economic and Monetary Union (09:30-11:00)

Chair: Florin Coman-Kund (Assistant Professor, Erasmus School of Law)

- Seraina Grünewald (Professor of European and Comparative Financial Law, Radboud University Nijmegen), “The digital euro and ECB accountability”
- Panagiotis Papapaschalis (Senior Lead Legal Counsel, European Central Bank), “CBDCs and central bank independence”
- Giovanni Zaccaroni (Assistant Professor, University of Milan Bicocca), “The (troubled?) future of the euro between digitalisation and decentralisation”

Discussant: Christy-Ann Petit (Assistant Professor, Dublin City University)

Coffee break (11:00-11:30)

Panel 4: The ECB in macroprudential supervision (11:30-12:45)

Chair: Diane Fromage (Professor of European Law, University of Salzburg)

- Daniel Segoin (Legal Counsel, European Central Bank), “Potentialities and constraints of the ECB competences in the field of macroprudential policy”
- Donato Salomone (Legal Counsel, Italian Central Bank), “The national dimension of the macroprudential policy within the European Union”

Discussant: Raffaele D'Ambrosio (University of Bologna & Italian Central Bank)

Closing comments by Diane Fromage and Menelaos Markakis (12:45-13:00)