

Transition Regulations Master Economics and Business 2026

Specialisation Economics of Markets and Organisations

As of the academic year 2026-2027, the specialisation Economics of Markets and Organisations will be terminated. As of September 2026, the following changes have become effective:

Old courses Academic year 2025-2026			Substitute courses Academic year 2026-2027
FEM11090	Applied Econometrics	block 1	FEM11087	Applied Microeconometrics	block 1
FEM11038	Industrial Organisation and Competition Policy	block 1	FEM11059 or FEM11186	Economics of Strategy Advanced Political Economics	block 1 block 1
FEM11213	Data Science and HR Analytics	block 2	FEM11166 or FEM11127	Economics of Negotiations Policy Issues in Public Spending on Education, Health and Labour	block 2 block 2
FEM11214	Seminar Cases in Economics of Markets and Organisations	block 3	FEM11130	Seminar Cases in Policy Evaluation	block 3
FEM11132	Seminar Recent Advances in Economics of Markets and Organisations	block 4	FEM11128 or FEM11209	Seminar Economic Policy Seminar Economics of Migration	block 4 block 4

Senior students who have obtained a valid but insufficient result for the old courses, will have the opportunity to take examinations for these courses (both the regular examination and the resit examination) in the academic year 2026-2027. However, this option is only available to students who completed their assignment(s) in 2025-2026. Previously obtained results for the assignment(s) will remain valid only in academic year 2026-2027.

Seminars are only offered once a year. For students who were unable to achieve a sufficient result in their seminar(s) during 2025-2026, replacement seminars will be available, as outlined in the table above.