

Erasmus Institute of Philosophy and Economics (EIPE)

Discounting the Future: Theory meets Policy

Date: 11 March, 2016 - 14:00

Location: Campus Woudestein, H17-02, Rivium, Tinbergen Building

Description

Erasmus Institute for Philosophy and Economics (EIPE)
Faculty of Philosophy, Erasmus University Rotterdam
Venue: H17-02, Rivium, Tinbergen Building

Programme
14.00	Welcome (with Coffee)
14.15	Conrad Heilmann (EUR): Introduction
14.30	Rob Aalbers (CPB): The new discounting guidelines in the Netherlands: the story behind the 3%
15.45	Coffee break
16.15	Marc Davidson (UvA): Discounting between maximizing utility and respecting rights
17.30	Closing discussion
18.00	Drinks and Dinner

The workshop is organised by Conrad Heilmann, and is part of the Marie Curie project "Foundations of Intergenerational Discounting".

Sponsored by: Erasmus Institute for Philosophy and Economics (EIPE), Faculty of Philosophy, Erasmus University Rotterdam, Marie Curie programme (FP7 of the European Union)