1. Objective
The EUR Fellowship grant is meant as extra stimuli for talented researchers from Erasmus University Rotterdam. Due to the lack of budget and the growing competition within various funding schemes, it has become more difficult for researchers to obtain research funding from the NWO Talent Scheme and the European Commission H2020 programme. With the EUR Fellowship scheme the Erasmus University Rotterdam wants to motivate talented researchers and facilitate them in writing a grant proposal, executing their research and evolve in their academic career.

2. Candidates
Researchers who have submitted a proposal for a NWO Veni, NWO Vidi or an European Research Council (ERC) Starting Grant and have received a good evaluation but where not funded due to budgetary reasons, can qualify for the EUR Fellowship at the first possible call deadline.

2.1 Eligibility criteria:
- NWO Veni: Researchers who have received an excellent or very good in their Final Assessment Score in their evaluation report.
  - Excellent: 1.0 to 1.4
  - Very good: 1.5 to 3.4
- NWO Vidi: Researchers who have received an excellent or very good in their Final Assessment Score in their evaluation report.
  - Excellent: 1.0 to 1.4
  - Very good: 1.5 to 3.4
- ERC Starting Grant: the candidate needs to be through to Step 2 (invitation to the interview).

3. Grant Conditions
A total amount of € 1,410,000 is available each year for the EUR Fellowships. This amounts to six Veni EUR Fellowships and four Vidi/ERC Starting Grant Fellowships. If the juries are not convinced of the quality of the proposals, they can decide to award fewer fellowships in the concerning round.

Part of the budget for the EUR Fellowship is earmarked by the Ministry of Education for the execution of alfa- or gamma- research, therefore a maximum of 5 of the 10 Fellowships can be awarded to the Erasmus MC.

3.1 Scope
- NWO Veni: € 135,000. This Fellowship can be used over a period of two years (in the event of a full-time appointment). Only the costs that are considered legitimate for a NWO Veni can be submitted for the EUR Fellowship. Only direct project costs (salary costs and equipment costs used to support the research project) can be financed by the EUR Fellowship. The faculty of the applying candidate is responsible for indirect costs such as salary costs for teaching, management tasks, and overhead.

  or;

- NWO Vidi and ERC Starting Grant: € 150,000. When applying with an NWO Vidi or an ERC Starting grant the Fellowship can be used over a period of four years (in the event of a full-
In this Fellowship the candidate can apply for the following:
1. For the purpose of the researcher itself;
2. For the deployment of a Postdoc;
3. For the deployment of a PhD candidate. (The faculty needs to provide the additional funding of the PHD after the € 150,000 until the amount needed to finance a four year fulltime deployment as PhD is reached).

Only direct project costs (salary costs and equipment costs incurred in support of the research project) can be financed by the EUR Fellowship. The faculty is responsible for indirect costs such as salary costs for teaching, management tasks, and overhead.

3.2 Appointment
The EUR Fellow must be appointed to a faculty of the Erasmus University Rotterdam for the term of the research project as described in the proposal.

3.3 Suspension and discontinuation
The EUR Fellowship can only be postponed, extended or suspended with the prior written permission of the Executive Board. The Board will grant permission in the case of a) pregnancy and birth, and b) other exceptional circumstances.

If the researcher leaves the Erasmus University Rotterdam, or for any other reason discontinues all activities associated with the EUR Fellowship research, the funding will be ended immediately. Discontinuation of all activities associated with the EUR Fellowship research must be explained in a letter submitted to the Executive Board.

3.4 Contribution Science Hub EUR
During the fellowship, the EUR Fellows are asked to contribute to research related activities at the EUR for 3- half days. For example as a guest speaker at a research grant training, to be a member of a mock interview committee, or for scientific impact activities such as the EUR Science Hub.

5.2 Procedure
The EUR Fellowship coordinator decides if the received application is complete and meets the admission criteria. The proposals are consecutively sent to the evaluation committee members, who will evaluate the proposals individually on the evaluation criteria and prepare a ranking. These individual rankings will be combined in one overview.

Two jury meetings will be organized, with a distinction between the EUR Woudestein and Erasmus MC proposals. The proposals will be discussed and the jury members will reach a decision in consensus for the Executive Board. The Executive Board will base their final awarding on this advice.¹
