

Evaluating Student Impact Capacity: A Guidebook for Teachers

This guidebook is designed to assist course coordinators in evaluating students' impact capacity in their courses. It contains the definition of students' impact capacity and a non-exhaustive list of example questions for evaluating societal impact capacity, which can be tailored to specific course's intended learning objectives. This tool has been developed within a collaboration between Impact at the Core and the Evaluating Societal Impact project at EUR.

Use it to Evaluate students' impact capacity, which will assist you in designing your course to be more impact-driven.

Who to involve Students.

Results Data regarding the role the course played in students' impact capacity, thus allowing insight into how you can tailor your course to be more impact driven.
