

What will you learn?

This course consists of ten weekly sessions of 2,5 hours each and is a continuation of the course Chinese beginners 1. During this course you will continue with the previously learned topics of the Chinese language, with emphasis on reading, speaking, listening and writing skills in an everyday context. Topics that are covered include:

- asking and giving directions;
- shopping and eating outside;
- grammar;
- vocabulary;
- the Chinese culture.

Furthermore, you will be able to write about 200 new words in Pinyin and recognize 20 new basic Chinese characters. You will also have a small vocabulary with which you can formulate simple and composed sentence structures for common and everyday situations. The final level of the course is beginners 2, similar to the level A1.2 of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) and level 1 according to Hanyu Shuiping Kaoshi (HSK).

Admission requirements

To be admitted to this course, your current level of the language needs to be at beginners 1.

As proof of this entrance level we accept the following:

- the beginners 2 (A1.2) advice of an LTC's assessment (less than 12 months old);
- the LTC certificate of the beginners 1 course (less than 12 months old);
- If you are currently participating in the Chinese beginners 1 course of the LTC, you are allowed to register for a beginners 2 course. Passing for your final exam and thus completing the course with a Pass is necessary to start the following level.

Did you know?

Chinese doesn't have an alphabet.

Good to know

- This course is available for participants with an academic background (hbo/university).
- Course participants are expected to spend approximately three hours a week on course preparation and self-study.
- Attendance is not compulsory, but advisable. Please note that the last class consists of an oral test and a listening test. To pass the course, you should be present on that particular day.
- A final written exam is part of this course. Dyslectic students can get extra time to complete the written test. To arrange this, you need to contact the LTC via email. You will also have to send a copy of your official statement of special needs.
- A certificate is awarded to participants who achieve a 'pass' for all skills.

Groups

Our groups are small: the minimum number of participants is 10, the maximum is 16. Please note that the LTC reserves the right to cancel this course if the required minimum number of participants is not reached. Whenever a course is canceled due to few registrations, you will be informed and your fee will be refunded.

Course material

The course material costs approximately € 45,- and is not included in the course fee. You will receive a confirmation letter with further details when the course starts.
