Mind your data.

Privacy Event

The European privacy law GDPR becomes enforceable on May 25.
A perfect moment to reflect on that...

Ever seen a hacker at work? What do the new privacy regulations mean for your work, study or research? How much personal data are you willing to share with others? Find out during the 'Mind Your Data'-Privacy Event!

On this day you will find several events spread out all over campus, in which we dive into the influence of privacy and the new privacy regulations. You can find the program below.
