CALL FOR PAPERS
DEADLINE: APRIL 16, 2018

The European Association of Law and Economics (EALE) welcomes submissions for its 35th annual conference to be held in Milano at the University of Milano-Bicocca on September 20-22, 2018. Policy papers are eligible if they deal with very important and timely issues. Submissions must be original and not yet published. Submitting a draft is possible, but we will give preference to full papers.

Submit online at eale.org by April 16, 2018.

In the submission form you will be asked to indicate whether you are eligible for the Göran Skogh Award for the most promising paper presented at the EALE Conference by a scholar who has obtained his or her PhD not earlier than two years prior to the conference. The winner will receive EUR 1,000.

If you would like your paper to be scheduled on a particular day for religious reasons, please send an email to EALE.Milano2018@unimib.it contextually to the submission. Later scheduling requests will not be considered.

Acceptance will be communicated on or around May 31, 2018.

Confirmation through registration: Authors of accepted papers will have two weeks to confirm their attendance by registering to the conference. Papers by authors who are not able to confirm will be excluded from the program. We do this to minimize the number of empty slots at the conference.

Registration fee (including EALE membership): €300 for regular participants and €175 for Ph.D. students.

Hotel reservations: Milano is a very busy city, especially in September. Reserve your accommodation as soon as possible. Cancellation of early booking is often for free. A list of suggested accommodation options is upcoming on the EALE 2018 website.
