

Rules and Guidelines of the Examination Board for the bachelor programme in Philosophy of a Specific Discipline 2025-2026

Section 1 General provisions

Article 1.1 Applicability of the Regulations

These regulations apply to the 2025-2026 academic year and govern the course examinations and the final examination of the bachelor programme in Philosophy of a Specific Discipline and are applicable to all students that are enrolled in the programme.

Article 1.2 Definitions

Unless stated otherwise, the definitions as formulated in the Course and Examination Regulations will also be used in the present Rules and Guidelines.

Article 1.3 The Examination Board

1. The duties and powers of the Examination Board are stipulated in Sections 7.10, 7.11, 7.12, 7.12b and 7.12c of the Act.
2. The Examination Board appoints an executive committee consisting of at least two persons who are charged with the day-to-day business of the Board.
3. Requests submitted to the Examination Board should be sent by email and should have the relevant documents attached. The Examination Board will provide its decision within three weeks of receipt of a request and will inform the student of its decision by email.

Section 2 Exams and examiners

Article 2.1 Examiners

1. Prior to the start of a course the Programme Director will propose to the Examination Board the instructor (s) under whose responsibility the course will be given. The Examination Board then takes a decision about the appointment as examiner of the proposed instructor(s) for the course in question.
2. The Examination Board verifies that the examiners meet the expertise requirements.
3. The Examination Board may set binding guidelines and assessment standards, within the bounds of the programme regulations, for determining the results of interim and final examinations.
4. On request, the examiners will provide the Examination Board with information about the examinations and the corresponding results.
5. The Examination Board may revoke the appointment of an examiner if it has serious reason to do so.

Article 2.2 Quality assurance of the examinations and bachelor examination

1. The programme director, in consultation with the Examination Board, draws up a test plan for the programme. This plan will include a systematic description of all the tests.

2. The Examination Board draws up an Examination protocol for the production and supervision of examinations and for marking and administering the results for the programme. Examiners follow the directives set out in this protocol.
3. The Examination Board is responsible for the evaluation of the examinations.
4. The Examination Board informs the Programme Director about the results of this evaluation.

Article 2.3 Language of the examination

1. In exams which are also part of the fulltime philosophy curriculum, the questions are offered in both English and Dutch. Written examinations may be answered in Dutch.
2. For the use of any other language than English or Dutch, in any form of examination, the student must submit a request to the Examination Board (cf art. 3.3.4 Course & Examination Regulations)

Article 2.4 Complaints about implementing the role of examiner

1. Complaints about the implementation of the role of examiner can be filed with the Examination Board.
2. When the substance of the complaint is such that another board has competency, the Examination Board will forward the complaint while notifying the complainant.
3. The complaint is handled in conformity with article 7.12b, section 4 WHW and chapter 9 of the Awb.

Article 2.5 Declaring exams invalid

Before, during or after an exam, the Examination Board can determine that the exam must be carried out (anew) in another way or at another time. This can happen in case of verified or plausible suspicions of irregularities such as:

- large scale or organised fraud making the exam results unreliable, while it cannot (as yet) be established which individual students are involved;
- a technical failure, in case of digital examination, which renders exam results unreliable.

In case of such irregularities, the Examination Board can determine that for the results of an exam which has already been (partly or wholly) finalized, are insufficiently reliable and must therefore be declared invalid. This can also apply when at any time it appears that the exam itself, or the organisation and procedures around the examination, fall short of the requirements imposed by the Examination Protocol, or any other binding rules and regulations.

Section 3 Discipline during lectures and examinations

Article 3.1 Disciplinary rules for examinations

The Order Rules for written exams of the EUR are an integral part of these Rules & Guidelines and can be found on the EUR website.

Section 4 Fraud and sanctions

Article 4.1 Fraud

1. The term fraud is understood to mean any acts or omissions on the part of a student that make it impossible for the examiner and the Examination Board to form an accurate opinion of the student's acquired knowledge, insight and skills (or those of his fellow students).
2. The student must avoid any possible appearance of fraud in connection to himself during the examination.
3. The following shall in any event be deemed to be fraud:
 - a. obtaining knowledge concerning the questions or assignments in a certain examination prior to that examination;
 - b. assuming someone else's identity or being represented by someone else during an examination;
 - c. consulting or having within reach information sources (including books, syllabi, personal paper, notes written on skin or on fabric, calculators that can be programmed, mobile telephones and smartphones) the use or having within reach of which is not explicitly permitted during an examination. Mobile telephones, smartphones et cetera should be switched off and remain off during examinations;
 - d. copying from or exchanging any information whatsoever with fellow students, either inside or outside the examination room, during the examination; giving another person the opportunity to commit fraud will also be deemed fraud;
 - e. exchanging or swapping the issued question papers or answer papers with other students;
 - f. making any changes to previously submitted examination answers during a subsequent inspection;
 - g. committing plagiarism, which shall be taken here to mean the copying of a passage containing more than a few words from his own or someone else's work, either literally or in translation, in an individual or group assignment, project, thesis or any other type of text that is part of an examination, without indicating this by quotation marks or any other unequivocal typographical means, even if a bibliographically traceable and correct source reference is included. Providing other students with the opportunity to commit plagiarism is also deemed to be fraud;
 - h. ghostwriting: have someone (or something, such as generative AI) else write or edit, wholly or in part, text that forms part of an exam or thesis, unless specifically instructed by the examiner to do so;
 - i. taking the examination without being entitled to do so;
 - j. making it partially or completely impossible, by means of misleading acts, omissions or in any other way, for the examiner and the Examination Board to form an accurate assessment of the student's knowledge, insight and skills.
4. Academic achievements in writing may only be evaluated in EC's once. Students are not permitted to submit a previously written thesis, assignment or any other form of text written in connection with the student's present or previous programme at or outside the Erasmus School of Philosophy a second time in the same course or a different course without first consulting the examiner and obtaining his approval (with respect to the part for which the text is submitted a second time or is intended to result in EC's a second time) or to use any part of a previously produced project, either in amended form or otherwise, when writing a thesis, assignment or other project for the purpose of obtaining EC's for it a second time, without prior consultation with the examiner and obtaining his approval.

5. In addition to the general obligation to provide clear and relevant source references, students are under a special obligation to be completely transparent at all times with respect to re- using their own previous work. They can be held explicitly accountable on this point.
6. In case a written examination is not proctored, for instance an essay assignment or a thesis, the examiner must perform a plagiarism check, as well as a check on the use of generative AI.

Article 4.2 Sanctions

1. Students who act in breach of the rules specified in Articles 4.1.3, 4.1.4, and 4.1.5 of these Regulations or give reason to do so are guilty of fraud.
2. If fraud is established or there is a grave suspicion of fraud during an examination, the invigilator or examiner must inform the student without delay. The invigilator or examiner must note this down on the work to be submitted by the student, and must take possession of any documentary evidence. The student will be given the opportunity to finish the examination and to hand in his work.
3. The invigilator must report the suspected or established fraud to the Department for Exam Administration on a standard report form immediately after the examination has finished. Any documentary evidence must be submitted together with this report. If the student refused to hand over any such documentary evidence, the invigilator must state this on the form. The Department for Exam Registration must send the report form filled in by the invigilator, together with any documentary evidence, to the Examination Board immediately after the end of the examination period.
4. If plagiarism or ghostwriting is established after an individual or group project, assignment or thesis has been submitted, or if there are grave suspicions of plagiarism or ghostwriting (e.g. based on the Turnitin detection tool), the examiner must report this to the examination board as soon as possible, also providing evidence.
5. The examination board investigates the case, and gives the student the opportunity to react to the suspicion; the student is given one week to respond.
6. Depending on the gravity of the fraud committed and taking any previous instances of fraud by the same student into account, the Examination Board may impose sanctions on the student, including the following:
 - a. a reprimand;
 - b. invalidation of the relevant individual or group project or assignment;
 - c. invalidation of the relevant examination;
 - d. invalidation of the relevant thesis;
 - e. exclusion from the relevant examination for a period not exceeding one year;
 - f. exclusion from one or more examination periods;
 - g. exclusion from thesis evaluation for a period not exceeding one year;
 - h. a combination of the aforementioned measures;
7. In addition to the sanctions mentioned in article 4.2.6, and depending on the severity of the fraud (including repeated cases of fraud), the Examination Board can submit a proposal to the Executive Board to permanently terminate the student's enrolment in the relevant bachelor programme

8. If fraud or plagiarism is established with respect to a group project, this will be imputed equally to each member of the group. The onus of proving the contrary lies with each member of the group.
9. If a student who is enrolled in another programme of another EUR faculty is taking ESPhil courses and a fraud sanction is imposed in an examination for such a course, the examination board of the other faculty at which the student is enrolled is informed of this sanction, and vice versa.

Section 5 Examinations: Content, assessment and compensations

Article 5.1 Content of the examinations

1. Changes to the topics of the examination during the course must be within the previously announced intended learning outcomes.
2. The student may lodge a complaint with the Examination Board against changes in the topics of the examination during a course.
3. The questions and assignments of the examination will cover the topics of the course in a balanced way, with due regard to the learning objectives of the course in question.
4. The questions and assignments of an examination must be clear and unambiguous. They are phrased in such a way that the student can know how extensive and detailed the answers are to be.

Article 5.2 Assessment standards

1. All examinations will be assessed on the basis of clearly explicated standards, which in case of written exams are preferably incorporated into model answers.
2. Each student is assessed individually. Collective parts of the examination may not constitute more than 30% of the exam.
3. The assessment is done in such a way that it can be ascertained, by the student and the Examination Board, how the individual assessment and the result have been arrived at.
4. In the event an examination is arranged by more than one examiner and the result of the examination is assessed by several examiners, those examiners must ensure that the assessment is based on the same standards. If necessary, the Examination Board will assign final responsibility for the examination assessment to a single examiner.

Article 5.3 Marks

1. An examination result of 5.5 or higher will qualify as a passing mark. Marks with more than one decimal will be rounded off to one decimal, as follows: 4 or lower will be rounded down, 5 or higher will be rounded up.
2. Determination of a final mark in an exam consisting of several sub-exams takes into account the following:
 - a) the result of each partial exam is determined as a number with one decimal, on a scale of 1,0 to 10,0
 - b) each partial exam is attributed a relative weight; these weights are mentioned in the course syllabus
 - c) the final mark is the weighted average of the results for the partial exams. When rounding off this weighted average to a number with one decimal, a 5 or higher is rounded off upwards, and a 4 or lower is rounded off downwards (e.g. a 5,44 becomes 5,4; a 5,45 becomes 5,5)

d) when an exam consists of a number of partial exams, a student who is allowed to take the exam is allowed to take all partial exams. If the student has participated in at least one partial exam but not all partial exams, the final exam result is established by calculating a weighted average as if the partial exams not taken had the result of 1,0. If the student has not taken any of the partial exams, no result for the exam is established.

3. Alphanumeric results will be given in the following cases:
 - students who are registered for an examination but who have not actually sat it will be awarded an NS (No Show);
 - students who are enrolled for a course but did not take a certain examination component will be awarded an NC (Not Completed) for the relevant examination component;
 - students who completed a component but did not receive a mark for it may be awarded a C (Completed);
 - students who have been granted an exemption by the Examination Board will be awarded an EX (Exempted);
4. If a student has not enrolled and thus is not eligible to take an examination, any grade given for the relevant examination will be declared null and void.

Article 5.4 Compensation

1. A compensation arrangement applies to the courses of the bachelor in Philosophy of a Specific Discipline. Students may compensate one of the eight core courses (the courses that are also part of the BA filosofie).
2. The unsatisfactory course result of one course, of which the result is at least a 4.5, may be compensated with the satisfactory result of another course provided that the sum of the result of the course requiring compensation and the result of the compensating course equals at least 12.0.

Article 5.5 Resits

1. Written exams cannot have oral resits without permission from the Examination Board.
2. In case an exam consists of multiple parts for which marks are given, a resit opportunity must be offered for at the least the two largest parts. For parts that count for 20% or less in the final grade, no resit needs to be offered.
3. The resit must be specified in the course description on Canvas.
4. The resit for a skills component can be offered in a different form than the original exam, but should retain in its form as much as possible the relevant skills component.
5. A partial resit for which the mark counts for less than 40% in the final grade, does not count regarding the maximum number of resits allowed.
6. Any part of an exam which counts for less than 40% in the final grade and for which a sufficient mark has been awarded, cannot be resat.

Section 6 The bachelor thesis

Article 6.1 The bachelor thesis

1. The student discusses the subject of the thesis with the intended supervisor. After the intended supervisor has approved the subject of the thesis, the student submits his proposal for the subject of the thesis and the intended supervisor to the Examination Board. If the Examination Board approves the subject of the thesis and the intended supervisor, the Examination Board will notify the student. In the same notice, the Examination Board informs the student which examiner will act as advisor (second assessor). The letter will also be sent to the supervisor and the advisor. Appointments as examiner or advisor are reversed only in exceptional cases.

2. The student formulates a one page draft for the thesis; see the manual on MyEUR. This draft has to be approved by the supervisor.
3. The thesis has a length of 7.500 to 10.000 words. Exceeding this amount is only possible for specific reasons and after permission by the Examination Board.
4. The student hands in a complete version of the thesis before the deadline (June 15) with the supervisor and with the Examination Board; the students simultaneously uploads the thesis in the Canvas box for plagiarism and AI scanning. In principle, one or more rounds of comment and revision have already taken place. In case this deadline is missed, the procedure described below under point 11 will automatically apply.
5. The supervisor evaluates and grades the thesis using an Assessment Form. This grade can only be expressed in whole or half numbers (e.g. 7,5; not 7,3).
6. If the supervisor deems the thesis sufficient, he or she forwards it to the advisor. The advisor fills out an Assessment Form, including a provisional grade. This grade can only be expressed in whole or half numbers (e.g. 7,5; not 7,3).
7. In case the advisor deems the thesis insufficient, he or she will address formal and materials shortcomings, and give suggestions for improvement. In case the advisor deems the thesis sufficient, she or he can give suggestions for further improvement.
8. The supervisor informs the student forthwith about how the thesis is judged.
9. In case no revision is necessary, or desired, the thesis is now final. In case revision is required, or performed optionally, the rewritten version should be filed with supervisor and advisor within two weeks.
10. Supervisor and advisor evaluate the new version and give a (new) mark. When necessary, they provide additional comments on their Assessment Forms motivating their new judgment. These marks as well can only be expressed in whole or half numbers.
11. In case the deadline (15 June) mentioned in point 4 above is missed, an alternative procedure comes into force. The student hands in a complete version no later than July 15 with supervisor and advisor, and uploads the thesis in the Canvas box for plagiarism and AI scanning. This version is graded by supervisor and advisor simultaneously. Revision is not allowed. Supervisor and advisor each fill out an assessment form. The advisor send his form to the supervisor.
12. The supervisor informs the Examination Board on the final mark for the thesis, adding both Assessments Forms and the thesis.
13. The supervisor informs the student forthwith about the final mark for the thesis.
14. The final mark for the thesis consists of the average of the mark of the supervisor and the advisor, unless one of the two assessors gives an insufficient mark; in that case the insufficient mark is the final mark.
15. If the difference between the preliminary marks of the two assessors is 1,5 or more points, the Examination Board assigns a third assessor. In addition, if one of the two assessors gives an insufficient mark for the thesis while the other gives a sufficient mark, each of the two assessors can ask the Examination Board to assign a third assessor. If the thesis is evaluated by three assessors, the final mark consists of the average of their three marks, unless two of the three assessors have given an insufficient mark. In that case the final mark will consist of the average of the two insufficient marks.
16. In case revision is undertaken as referred to in §6.1.7 above, the revised version will be considered a resit.

Section 7 The exam and the distinction

Article 7.1 Certificates and declarations

1. After all parts of the final examination have been passed, the head of Student Administration determines the result of the final examination on behalf of the examination board, taking into account:
 - a. the Teaching and Examination Regulations of the programme;
 - b. The R&R of the examination board for the programme.
2. As proof that the final examination has been passed, a certificate shall be issued by the examination board, after the Executive Board or the officer mandated to do so has certified that the procedural requirements for issuing the certificate have been met.
3. One certificate is awarded per programme, even if a student completes more than one sub-programme, track or specialisation within that programme.
4. The procedure for applying for the certificate can be found on my.eur.
5. The list of marks forming part of the certificate shall list the components which make up the final examination.
6. To accompany the certificate, the examination board will provide a diploma supplement in English that complies with the agreed standard format in Europe.
7. The certificate, list of marks and diploma supplement will be signed by the chair of the Examination Board.
8. The certificate, list of marks and diploma supplement are issued by the Examination Board.
9. A student who has passed more than one interim examination and to whom no certificate can be awarded, may request that the examination board issue a declaration listing the interim examinations that the student has passed.

Article 7.2 The examination day

1. The Examination Board annually stipulates two (and if necessary three) examination days for the conferral of the bachelor degree certificates: the third (and if necessary fourth) Monday in September. On those examination days, the students in question give a short presentation on their bachelor theses in about ten minutes.
2. The student concerned should submit the following items to the Examination Board at least 20 working days prior to the intended date of the examination day mentioned in the previous paragraph: one pdf-version of their approved bachelor thesis, plus a pdf version of a summary of 100 words of the thesis, both for filing in the university repository system. If the student wants to participate in the examination day, he also hands in three hardcopies of the thesis.
3. After the presentation, the thesis supervisor will be given the opportunity to briefly address the student in question, after which the Dean of the Faculty or his deputy presents the certificate to the student.
4. Students are not obligated to participate in the examination day.

Article 7.2 The distinction

One single distinction may be mentioned on the statement of the results of the bachelor examination: 'with honours' ('Cum Laude').

1. This distinction is conferred if:
 - a. the weighted average of the final marks for the courses offered by the Faculty itself as part of the programme Philosophy of a Specific Discipline is 8.25 or higher and the final mark for none of these courses is lower than 7.0;
 - b. the mark for the bachelor thesis is 8,25 or higher;

- c. the granted exemptions (please see Article 5.10 of the Course and Examination Regulations) do not exceed 20% of the overall course load of 90 EC's;
 - d. the student has not been the subject of a sanction due to fraud or plagiarism.
2. The Examination Board can confer the distinction to students who have not fulfilled the criteria mentioned under (1.) on special grounds.

7.3 Free curriculum

A student may himself compile a bachelor curriculum programme leading up to a final examination. When necessary, the University Board determines which Examination Board will be charged with the authority to judge on this matter.

Section 8 Transitional and final provisions

Article 8.1 Special clause

In cases where these regulations do not provide unambiguously, or manifestly have an unreasonable outcome, a decision will be taken by the Examination Board.

Article 8.2 Amendments

1. Amendments to these Regulations will be laid down by the Examination Board.
2. Amendments to these regulations have no effect in the ongoing academic year, unless such amendments will not unreasonably prejudice the interests of students.
3. No amendment may disadvantage a student by influencing a decision that was already taken previously in accordance these Regulations.
4. The provisions of Article 8.1 also apply to questions that might arise from differences between the current Regulations and previous versions.

Article 8.3 Publication

The Examination Board is responsible for the publication of these Regulations, as well as for any amendments.

Article 8.4 Effective date

These Regulations will come into effect on 1 September 2025.

III The appeals procedure

A student may lodge an appeal against any decision of an examiner (e.g. assessments) or the Examination Board with the Board of Appeal for Examinations (CBE) of Erasmus University. In urgent cases, the chair of the CBE may be requested to impose a provisional measure.

The appeal may be lodged by an interested party, i.e. the person whose interests are directly involved in a decision. The appeal should be lodged within six weeks of the announcement of the contested decision. If the appeal is lodged against an overdue decision, it should be submitted within a reasonable term.

The appeal should be submitted to the CBE in writing and addressed to the secretary of that Board. The appeal may also be lodged through the EUR Facility of Protection of Rights where all notices of objection and appeals may be submitted online.

Before an appeal is handled by the CBE, a term for settlement will be put into effect, during which the Examination Board or examiner investigates whether the claimant's appeal may be settled (formal settlement attempt). During this term, parties may explain their positions in more detail, and the decision of the CBE will be carefully scrutinized.

The CBE assumes that the claimant has first been in touch with the examiner in question or the Examination Board in an attempt to reach an agreement (substantive settlement attempt). It should be noted that the term of six weeks for submitting a notice of appeal to the CBE will continue without interruption. With that in mind, a provisional notice of appeal may be submitted.

The student may appeal the decision of the CBE to the Afdeling bestuursrechtspraak van de Raad van State, within six weeks. See:

<https://www.raadvanstate.nl/overrvs/bestuursrechtspraak/studentenzaken/> (Dutch only).

This appeal is not possible, however, if the decision of the Board of Appeal for Examinations pertains to a decision that contains:

the assessment of the student's knowledge or skills that was or were the subject of the examination in this matter or tested in any other way (Article 8.4, under e of the Dutch General Administrative Law Act (Awb));

the establishment of the questions, assessment standards or more detailed rules for that examination or test (Article 8.4, under e of the Dutch General Administrative Law Act (Awb)).

More information about appeal procedures is available on the CBE-EUR's website.
