

Erasmus Institute of Philosophy and Economics (EIPE)

Workshop 'New Trends in the Philosophy of Social Science'

On the occasion of the Ph.D. defence of Attilia Ruzzene the Faculty of Philosophy of the Erasmus University Rotterdam will host the workshop 'New Trends in the Philosophy of Social Science' on 21 November.

The programme is as follows:

15:00-15:50

Mary Morgan (LSE)

Making narratives to "explain" society

Chair: Marcel Boumans

15:50-16:05

Coffee break

16:05-16:55

Julian Reiss (CHESS)

You shouldn't want counterfactuals if you have process tracing

Chair: Jack Vromen

16:55-17:10

Coffee break

17:10-18:00

David Teira Serrano (UNED) and Rasmus Grønfeldt Winther (University of California)

Do we need a universalizing paradigm for rational decision-making?

Chair: Conrad Heilmann