

What will you learn?

A Dutch C1.1 course consists of ten weekly sessions of 3 hours each. This course is a continuation of the course Dutch B2.2. During this course you will continue with the previously learned topics of the Dutch language, with emphasis on reading, speaking, listening and writing skills in an everyday context. Topics that are covered include:

- to further improve grammatical knowledge;
- writing a report or essay;
- expanding your vocabulary;
- negotiating and presenting.

By the end of the course, you will have an extensive vocabulary to be able to communicate orally and in writing in professional and everyday situations. The final level of the course is C1.1 according to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).

Admission requirements

Please note: You have to do an intake BEFORE you register for the course.

To be admitted to this course, your current level of the language needs to be at B2.2. As proof of this entrance level we accept the following:

- the C1.1 advice of an LTC intake or assessment (less than 12 months old);
- the LTC certificate of the B2.2 course (less than 12 months old);
- If you are currently participating in the Dutch B2.2 course of the LTC, you are allowed to register for a C1.1 course. Passing for your final exam and thus completing the course is necessary to actually start the following level.

Good to know

- This course is available for participants with an academic background (hbo/university).
- The course can be fully booked before the deadline
- Course participants are expected to spend approximately three hours a week on course preparation and self-study.
- Attendance is not compulsory, but advisable. Please note that the last class consists of an oral test and a listening test. To pass the course, you should be present on that particular day.
- A final written exam is part of this course. Dyslectic students can get extra time to complete the written test. To arrange this, you need to contact the LTC via email. You will also have to send a copy of your official statement of special needs.
- A certificate is awarded to participants who achieve a 'pass' for all four skills.
