Scripting Basics

This overview describes the elements of a script. When making a script, we recommend to follow the structure in mind that these aspects are important in order to

Introduce yourself, provide a real life scenario or relate to prior knowledge

After this video you will be able apply / create...

Let's have a look at...

The first part was about ... now I will explain something about...

An example of..

You now have

Our next video is about...

Title

Introduction

Learner centered Relevant Attentively

Learning goal

> Explain theory

Core content

Core message

Arguments Examples Elaborations

Closing

Summarization Looking forward to other videos, readings or assignments