NOTES

- Students are strongly advised to consult the document What do I need to do in order to graduate? for comprehensive details on the thesis process and the procedure of submitting the e-thesis.
- This form must be completely filled out and signed. It should be submitted in person to the Exam Administration at least one month in advance of the preferred graduation date. Only those requests can be processed for which a corresponding final thesis proposal has been filed with the Exam Administration at least two months in advance of the desired graduation date.
- The electronic version of the thesis report will be included in RSM's Master Thesis Repository. Scientific research is open to public scrutiny and theses are expected not to contain confidential data. In rare cases where confidential data cannot be excluded from the thesis, the Examination Board may decide, at the request of the author, that the thesis will remain undisclosed in virtue of weighty interests for a maximum of two years. Such a nondisclosure request must be submitted simultaneously with this form by means of the Confidentiality Form.

ROTTERDAM SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT, ERASMUS UNIVERSITY CODE OF ETHICS

During the course of thesis research students must present themselves to all parties involved, such as respondents and interviews, as master students from RSM. RSM's official logo and stationery may only be used if such use has explicitly been authorised by RSM.

Unless authorised, students are to avoid creating the impression that the research in the thesis project is part of research carried out by RSM faculty.

The report respects basic ethics in being free of any defamatory or otherwise actionable material.
