

Erasmus Institute for Philosophy and Economics (EIPE)

Research Seminar Programme Spring 1999

27 January, Barbara Krug (Erasmus)

"On customs in economics"

Comments by Arjo Klamer (Erasmus University)

10 February, Jack Vromen (Erasmus)

"Evolutionary psychology and economic theory"

Comments by Hans-Cees Speel (Technical University of Delft)

24 February, Matthias Klaes (Erasmus)

"The emergence of the concept of transaction costs: A case study in institutional history"

Comments by Albert Jolink (Erasmus University)

10 March, Anthonie Meijers (Tilburg University and Technical University of Delft)

"The individual and the collective"

Comments by Theo van Willigenburg (Erasmus University)

24 March, Claude Ménard (Sorbonne, Paris)

"The applicability of new institutional economics. The case of water supply"

Comments by Bart Nooteboom (NIAS and University of Groningen)

7 April, John Groenewegen and Rudi Verburg (Erasmus)

"Economics and other social sciences: The issue of interdisciplinarity"

Comments by Judith Mehta (Erasmus University)

12 May, Geoff Hodgson (University of Hertfordshire)

"Structure and institutions: Reflections on institutionalism, structuration theory and critical realism"

Comments by Uskali Mäki (Erasmus University)