

Erasmus Institute for Philosophy and Economics (EIPE)

Research Seminar Programme Spring 2005

31 January, Michael Howard (University of Waterloo and NIAS)

"The rationality of violence, terror and war"

Comments by Chris Kortekaas (Erasmus)

14 February, John Groenewegen and Rolf Künneke (Delft)

"On Institutional Change: Equilibrium, Evolution and Revolution.

The Case of the Dutch Electricity Sector"

Comments by Roland Spekle (Erasmus)

28 February, Govert den Hartog (Amsterdam)

"The reality of ownership. Are there any principles of fiscal justice?"

Comments by Heico Kerkmeester (Erasmus)

10 March, Sanjeev Goyal (Essex and Erasmus)

"The social structure of economics"

Comments by Harry van Dalen (Erasmus and NIDI)

14 March, Marc Slors (Nijmegen)

"Against physicalism"

Comments by Lars de Nul (Antwerpen)

4 April, Martin van Hees (Groningen)

"Preferences, Counterfactual Success, and Freedom"

Comments by TBA

18 April, Werner Guth (Max Planck Institute)

"Shared Interest versus Repeated Interaction"

Comments by TBA

9 May, Filip Buekens (Tilburg)

"Observing in the Space of Reasons"

Comments by Fred Muller (Erasmus)