

Erasmus Institute for Philosophy and Economics (EIPE)

Research Seminar Programme Spring 2008

4 February, Luis Fernández Moreno (Complutense Madrid)

"On the Reference of Proper Names: A Reply to Kripke"

Comments Filip Buekens (Tilburg)

18 February, Fabienne Peter (Warwick)

"Pure Epistemic Proceduralism"

Comments Tim de Mey (EUR)

3 March, Mark Blaug (UvA, EIPE)

"The trade-off between rigour and relevance; Sraffian economics as a case in point"

Comments Marcel Boumans (UvA)

17 March, Roman Frigg (LSE)

"Models and Fiction"

Comments F.A. Muller (EUR)

31 March, Matthew Braham (Groningen)

"Smithian Social Justice"

Comments Eric Schliesser (Leiden)

14 April, Alessandro Lanteri (EIPE)

"What is Behavioural Economics Like?"

Comments Arno Riedl (Maastricht)

28 April, Alex Voorhoeve (LSE)

"Why it Matters that Some are Worse Off Than Others"

Comments Boudewijn de Bruin (Groningen)

19 May, Tarja Knuuttila (Helsinki)

"Representation, idealization and fiction in economics: From the assumptions issue to the epistemology of modelling"

Comments Julian Reiss (EIPE)