A1.2 If the Other Party is not also the Course Participant, the Other Party has to ensure that the Course Participant is informed of the General Terms and Conditions. In so far as obligations arise for the Course Participant from these Terms and Conditions, the Other Party is held to ensure that the Course Participant complies therewith. The Other Party is responsible for each non-compliance by the Course Participant with the Terms and Conditions.

A2. Applicability

A2.1 These Terms and Conditions apply to all Agreements between the Other Party and the LTC and to all agreements arising from it or connected to it, as well as to all Offers made by LTC

A2.2 If the Other Party refers to other terms and conditions in the Agreement or any other correspondence in connection with the Agreement, the applicability thereof is explicitly rejected. Any other stipulations in such other terms and conditions will not prejudice the foregoing.

A2.3 Deviations and/or additions to the Agreement or any stipulation from the Terms and Conditions will solely be effective if and in so far as LTC has accepted these explicitly and in writing, signed by the persons authorised to that end, and these will solely refer to the Agreement in question. If such a deviation or addition is accepted by LTC, this will not have any precedent effect and the Other Party cannot derive any rights from it for possible future Agreements.

A3. Realisation of the Agreement

A3.1 In case of the Other Party A, the Agreement will be realised on the Date the Other Party sends in or hands in the registration form or effects the payment for the Course by way of buying the course product in the web shop or by signing a course contract Dutch.

A3.2 In case of the Other Party B or C, the Agreement will be realised on the Date LTC receives the signed Offer or a written contract.

A3.3 In case of the Other Party B or C, in the events listed in Stipulation C4, the amended Agreement can also be realised, if the LTC has started with the actual performance of the Course, without any objection of the Other Party.

A3.4 An Offer is solely valid during the period of time mentioned in it. If the Offer is not accepted within this period, the offer will lapse, unless the LTC informs in Writing that the offer is still valid.

A3.5 A registration or signed Offer can solely be revoked or amended by the Other Party in Writing and solely if this revocation or request to amend has reached the LTC before the Date on which the confirmation of registration has been received by the Other Party or the signed Offer has been received by the LTC.

A4. Participation

A4.1 The following Participation Requirements apply to a Course:

- the provision of all information requested by the LTC, and
- if stipulated, an intake interview or an assessment with the Course Participant,

- having complied with the tuition costs (or the due part thereof).

A4.2 The course participant is admitted to an individual Course until 30 minutes after the starting hour set, on the understanding that the Course will then be limited to the duration agreed minus the time the Course Participant has been too late.

A4.3 The tuition costs for a group course will not be refunded when the Course Participant is too late or unable to come.

A4.4 The LTC will try, in case of an individual course, to postpone the lesson if the Course Participant is unable to come, on the condition that the LTC has been informed by email of the inability to come at least two working days and during office hours (9 a.m. - 5 p.m.) before the commencement of the lesson by the Other Party.

A4.5 In case of an individual course, when the inability to attend is reported too late by the course participant, the lesson will be considered as having been given and the tuition costs will not be refunded.

A4.6 For an individual course, the maximum extension of the Course will be 25% of the duration originally set, unless agreed otherwise, to be counted as from the first lesson agreed. A longer duration and/or a temporary postponement of a Course will solely be taken into consideration after a written request has been filed by the Other Party.

A4.7 The LTC is entitled at all times to replace a teacher or trainer by another teacher or trainer in the event of illness or for other urgent reasons.

A4.8 The LTC can refuse access to the Course in the event of breach of contract. This includes the non-payment or not timely payment of the course fee but also non-compliance with the rules of order and safety regulations to which the Course Participant is held on the basis of these terms and conditions. See Student Charter.

A5. Ownership rights and intellectual property rights

A5.1 All ownership rights and intellectual property rights of the Courses are the property of the LTC. Course Participants are solely granted the opportunity to use these and Course Participants / Other Parties are not entitled – unless the LTC has explicitly granted permission in writing and signed by the persons authorised to that end – to disclose or exploit these.

A5.2 Without prejudice to the possibility for LTC to demand damages in full, the Other Parties A and C will owe the LTC per violation a penalty amounting to the course fee of the Course in question.

A6. Payment

A6.1 Unless agreed otherwise, the tuition costs will be paid by the Other Party itself/himself. If another party pays instead of the Other Party, however, the Other Party will remain responsible for the payment of the tuition costs.

A6.2 When the Agreement is concluded, the Other Party will provide the LTC in Writing with all data relevant for the payment. Relevant data also include: Order/purchase numbers or other data of such nature or a written permission to make use of the Personal Career Budget for payment. If these have not been demonstrably provided in Writing when the Agreement was concluded, the absence of these data in the invoicing does not entitle to suspend payment.

A6.3 If payment does not take place within the period set, the Other Party will be in default after the period defined in a notice of default has lapsed. Then the Other Party will owe legal interest charged on the sum not paid as from the due date until the day of payment in full. This interest will be immediately payable. All expenses incurred for the collection of the invoiced sums (including the extrajudicial collection costs) will be borne by the Other Party. The extrajudicial collection costs will amount to at least 15% of the main sum.

A6.4 Payments will first serve to pay the collection costs, subsequently the interest owed and then the main sum. If the Other Party does not pay several invoices, payments will first serve to pay the oldest invoice and subsequently the oldest invoice but one, et cetera, taking into account the stipulations of the previous sentence.

A7. Final stipulations

A7.1 In the Language Courses, the Target Language is the tuition language, unless stated or agreed otherwise. A basic knowledge of English is strongly recommended.

A7.2 The tuition costs do not include the costs of any exams, books or other study materials, unless stated or agreed otherwise. The Other Parties/Course Participants will receive information on the necessary study materials before the commencement of the Course, so that they can obtain these themselves. When the Other Party is not the Course Participant, it will ensure that the Course Participant will be informed of it in time.

A7.3 The LTC reserves the right to amend and/or supplement these Terms and Conditions in case of a relevant change in circumstances. The amended Terms and Conditions will not be effective with regard to the Agreement than 2 weeks after the Written notice of this amendment/these amendments or the amended Terms and Conditions by the LTC to the Other Party. A relevant change in the circumstances will be deemed to exist in any case in the event of amended legislation and regulations, changed opinions or the Terms and Conditions becoming out of date.

A8. Postponement and Liability

A8.1 If as a result of, for instance, illness or absence of a teacher the LTC is obliged to postpone or reschedule one or more lessons, it will inform the Other Party and the Course Participants thereof as soon as possible, in so far as their contact data are known to the LTC. The LTC will offer the cancelled lessons again and, if the LTC decides not to do so in consultation with the Other Party, refund a proportionate part of the price agreed without being liable for more or otherwise.

A8.2 The LTC is liable for damage suffered by the Other Party and/or Course Participant as a direct result of an imputable shortcoming in the performance of the Course by the LTC, on the understanding that the damages will never exceed the sum owed by the Other Party for the Course.

A9. Applicable Law

All agreements between the Other Parties and LTC are governed by Dutch law.

A10. Disputes

A10.1 All disputes arising from an Agreement concluded between the Other Party A or C and the LTC will be settled out of court with the LTC. If it turns out that a settlement out of court cannot be reached, it is possible, if the Other Party A is a student of the EUR, to request a student counsellor to mediate. If the Other Party A is a student of the EUR, he or she can also choose to formally file a complaint with the EUR Legal Protection Facility, when the settlement out of court does not succeed. Other Parties A not being students at the EUR and Other Parties C can also file a complaint with the Executive Board of the EUR. In the latter instance, the Other Parties A and C can submit the complaint to the competent court of law in the District Rotterdam.

A10.2 All disputes with the Other Party B will in first instance be settled out of court by the Heads of the Administrative Units in question. If it turns out that a settlement out of court cannot be achieved, the dispute will be submitted to the Executive Board of the EUR for a final decision. Or, in the case of Dutch NT2, submitted to the Arbitration Board of Blik op Werk.
