

EIPE
Phd Seminars
2007

14 September

Roberta Muramatsu

“The rhetoric and methodology of behavioral economics: a study of choice over time”

Comments: Job Daemen

24 September

Luis Mireles-Flores

"Economic models and their uses: how purposes shape representation in economics."

22 October

Job Daemen

“The Austrian Middleground in Finance”

5 November

Mohammad Tavakoli

“Commitment, motivation, and economic choice”

19 November

Thomas Wells

“Perfectionism, sympathy and simulation in Sen’s Capability Approach”

3 December

To be arranged

10 December

To be arranged

Winter/Spring 2007

January 15

Floris Heukelom (UvA)

“Who are the behavioral economists and what do they say?”

Comments: Jelle de Boer (UvA) and Tijmen Daniels (UvA)

Chair: Job Daemen

January 29

Giorgos Papadopoulos

"The Future of Money"

Comments: Thomas Wells & Jack Vromen

Chair: Mohammad Tavakoli

February 12

Clemens Hirsch

"The Methodological Assessment of Institutionalisms"

Chair: Kwela Sabine Hermanns

February 26

Job Daemen

"Finance"

Chair: Thomas Wells

March 12

Mohammad Tavakoli

"Multiple Commitments"

Chair: Luis Mireles Flores

March 26

Thomas Wells

"The rationality of freedom"

Chair: Till Duppe

Comments: Mary Robertson

April 23

Luis Mireles Flores

"The practical relevance of economic theories"

Chair: Job Daemen

Comments: Anil Divarci

May 14

Ali Jaber

"Values and Consumer Behaviour"

Chair: Clemens Hirsch

May 29

Ramzi Mabsout

"Capabilities as well-being? Exploring the capability approach over one of its domains"

Comments: Attilia Ruzzene

Chair: Thomas Wells

June 11

Till D ppe

“Ideology and Economics”

Chair: Ali Jaber