

Applications from students with other Bachelor's degrees are also considered and are based on the following conditions on an individual basis (in addition students must also meet our English proficiency requirements).

	Commercial and Company Law	Maritime and Transport Law	International and European Public Law
Bachelor's degree from Erasmus University College or other university colleges'	Students have followed the legal track	Students have followed the legal track	Students have followed the legal track or have taken a sufficient number of law courses
Bachelor's degree in European Studies, Political Sciences or International Relations	N/A	N/A	Degree includes a substantial number of law courses