Dear Student,

You have been (conditionally) admitted to the master's programme Cultural Economics and Entrepreneurship at Erasmus School of History, Culture and Communication, Erasmus University Rotterdam, for the academic year 2017-2018. We are looking forward to welcoming you at our Faculty!

Introduction programme

The new academic year at ESHCC starts with the Faculty introduction day on September 6. This introduction is mandatory (see appendix).

On Wednesday the 6st of September, the staff welcomes all new Master Cultural Economics and Entrepreneurship (CEE) students. You will be provided with practical information about the programme, and introduced to the lecturers and their courses. We will also organise a tour around the campus. Thereafter, you will go on an excursion and have dinner together with fellow students.

Please make sure to bring your OV-chip card with sufficient balance to the introduction activities. You will need this for the excursion.

Programme schedule

Courses start on Monday 11 September. For the course schedule please go to: <http://www.eshcc.eur.nl/english/welcome/> Kindly note that there are sometimes last-minute changes to the the timetable.

Our Education Office will register all master students for the courses of term 1. As from term 2 you will have to register yourself.

Literature

It is important to purchase the compulsory literature before the start of the courses. The compulsory literature can be found in the course descriptions of the master's programme. Go to: https://www.eshcc.eur.nl/english/macee/current\_students/study\_schedule\_fulltime\_17\_18/ to find the study schedule of your programme. If you want to learn more about a specific course or want to see the current time table or the compulsory literature, fill out the course code in the course guide: <https://courses.eur.nl/#/>.

If you become a member of the ACE student association (see the attached document) you can order the books with a 10% reduction. Books can be ordered via <http://www.ifaace.nl/booksale/> as from 1 August. You are not obliged to order and buy your books via ACE. Of course you can also buy them in the shop, for example via the online bookstore of StudyStore (<http://www.studystore.nl>).

Facebookgroup

Become a member of your Facebookgroup Cultural Economics & Entrepreneurship, class 2017-2018:

The Erasmus supports students with a functional impairment such as ADHD, impairment in hearing, in movement, in vision, dyscalculia, dyslexia etc. For more information about the possibilities please visit the website https://www.eur.nl/english/essc/advice\_counselling/swd/
Please also contact your student advisor!

Access to ICT-facilities and the ERNA account
A number of ICT provisions of the Erasmus University Rotterdam (EUR) are made available to EUR students for the duration of their studies. When they first register, all students are given the so-called ERNA access code (user name/password combination) so they can use these provisions. This ERNA code provides students with access to the EURnet, a 24EUR7 mailbox, calendar and network storage.

The ERNA password can be changed, if desired, via <http://www.eur.nl/english/erna/>

We advise you to bring your ERNA credentials during the introduction day to access the educational systems.
