

---

Programme RHIN(e): 6th Transnational Rhine Conference

Rivers and Innovation in International Comparative Perspective

April 14-16, Maritime Museum and World Port Center, Rotterdam

---

Thursday April 14, Maritime Museum

Welcome 14.00	Frits Lomeijer, director Maritime Museum
Introduction 14.10	Ben Wubs (Erasmus University Rotterdam) Rivers and Innovation in International Comparative Perspective
Keynote 1 14.30	Leonard Blussé (Leiden University) Rhine and Yangzi Deltas: an Explorative Comparison
15.30	Coffee & tea
Session 1	Comparison of two river economies: Rhine und Yangtze
16.00 - 17.30	Catia Antunes (Leiden University) River Societies: A Transnational Comparative Project  Zhang Xiaohong (Fudan University Shanghai) An overview of historical geographic studies on the Jiangnan delta society and its peculiarities  Comments: Peer Vries (University of Vienna)
19.00	Diner in hotel Quartier du Port

Friday April 15, World Port Center

Session 2	Export Relations and Institutional Change in Early Modern Times
9.30-11.00	Magnus Ressel (Goethe University Frankfurt am Main/München) Organization, Change and Volume of Transalpine Transport between Germany and Italy in the 18th Century  Andrea Serles (University of Vienna) Trade and Transport in the Upper Danube Region: The Age of Mercantilism

	Comments: Eva Roelevink (Ruhr University Bochum)
11.00-11.30	Coffee and tea
Keynote 2 11.30-12.30	Nil Disco (University of Twente), The Rhine, a river of innovations
12.30-13.30	Lunch
Session 3	Changes of Economic Relations and Industrial Structures in the 19th Century
13.30-15.00	Margrit Schulte Beerbühl (Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf) Rise and decline of the Rhenish chocolate industry between Emmerich and Bonn (ca 1850-1970)  Hein Klemann (Erasmus University Rotterdam) West-German-Dutch Trade Relations, 1830-1860  Comments: Christian Marx (University of Trier)
Social Programme and dinner	To be announced

Saturday April 16, Maritime Museum

Session 4	River Regulation in Comparative Perspective: Rhine und Danube
9.30-11.00	Joep Schenk & Constantin Ardeleanu (Utrecht University) River regulation on the Rhine and the Danube: a comparison between two river regimes (1815-1914)  Antoine Beyer (IFSTTAR- UR Splott / Paris-Sorbonne) The Strasbourg Port Institution and Infrastructure in the Long Twentieth Century  Comments: Guido Thiemeyer (Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf)
11.00-11.30	Coffee and tea
Session 5	Technological Development and Knowledge Regimes

11.30-13.00	Jean-Francois Eck (University of Lille 3), Innovations and Rhine shipping after the Second World War Nils Bennemann (University of Duisburg/Essen), River Maps, Tolls and Navigability: On the Role, Exchanges and Standardization of Cartographic Knowledge in the Central Commission for Rhine Navigation, 1817 – 1880 Comments: Marten Boon (Norwegian University of Science and Technology Trondheim)
13.00-14.00	Lunch and end of the conference