Scripting Basics

This overview describes the elements of a script. When making a script, we recommend to follow the structure of this overview. Every element includes keywords, keep in mind that these aspects are important in order to make a good script.

Let’s have a look at...
The first part was about... now I will explain something about...
An example of...

Attractive and engaging

Introduce yourself, provide a real life scenario or relate to prior knowledge

After this video you will be able to describe / apply / create...

You now have learned...
We found that...
Our next video is about...

Title

Introduction
Learner centered
Relevant
Attentively

Core content
Core message

Learning goal
Explain theory

Arguments
Examples
Elaborations

Closing
Summarization
Looking forward to other videos, readings or assignments